Concert as a Spectator Report

The purpose of this report is to analyze and evaluate a live musical performance. This report is due once each trimester, with extra reports counting towards extra credit for a student's content knowledge grade. Please read all the instructions, then use the space below to take notes on the live performance you are attending. Your final report MUST be typed, in paragraph form, and submitted no later than the last day of each trimester for credit. Reports must also be submitted no later than one week from the date of the original event. Any ensemble from elementary school to professional groups are acceptable if they are a concert band, orchestra (string or full), or jazz band. Musicals with a live pit orchestra are also acceptable.

As you are observing this performance, answer the following prompt:

Is this an effective performance? Why or why not? Provide evidence and analysis to support your claim. Consider all musical factors like tone, balance, blend, dynamics, articulation, interpretation, and style. Remember: final reports must be typed, in paragraph form, and be submitted no later than one week from the event date.
